

This is a detailed cadastral map of a rural area in Germany. The map is color-coded: green for agricultural land, yellow for residential areas, and grey for industrial or commercial zones. A large grey area in the center is outlined with a dashed black line. Numerous circular labels with letters (MD, W, GE, GI, F, P) are placed throughout the map, indicating specific land use or planning zones. Roads are labeled with numbers like B 221 and B 56. The map also shows various fields and forests, with names like 'Hahnfeld', 'Hatterath', and 'Bergerhof'.
